DEFENSE OF SAMPSON.

Secretary Long Speaks In Plain Language.

NO OCCASION FOR CRITICISM.

Says the Admiral Did His Duty Without Fault.

PRAISES ALL MEN OF THE NAVY.

He intimates, as Commodore Schley Has Repeatedly Said, That There Was Glory Enough In the Naval Victory For All the Fleet.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The secretary of the navy has received several letters violently attacking Admiral Sampson. The following is a copy of his reply to one of them which he furnishes for publication:

My Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your letter, and hasten to assure you that what you say about Admiral Sampson is so unjust that it can only be pardoned on the ground of your ignorance of the whole matter.

You have no appreciation of the responsibilities that have been on Admiral Sampson; of his very superior attainments as an officer and the splendid work he has done in preparing for the naval victory which was the crowning accomplishment of his efforts for weeks and weeks before Santiago. Justice is always done in the long run.

But when you indulge in such unfounded criticism I can not forbear to protest, as I should feel bound to do if you had referred in similar terms to any other deserving officer.

Admiral Sampson was selected for the command of the North Atlantic squadron because the department, in the exercise of its best judgment with an eye single to the public interests, believed that he was especially fitted for the place.

Admiral Sicard, who held the command, having become incapacitated for duty by reason of sickness, was necessarily withdrawn by order of the department, and Sampson was next in command.

The two are especially accomplished ordnance officers, having been each at the head of the ordnance bureau, and having devoted themselves to that branch of naval science.

Sampson is a man of the very highest professional attainments, solely devoted to his duty. He never pushes himself forward, and when you accuse him of anything of that sort you do most cruel injustice to a man who has never sought favor or applause in any other way than by the simple discharge of his duty.

The movement on Porto Rico was not a movement for its capture. The department, which has very rarely interfered with the movements of admirals commanding squadrons, did, however, make one express order, and that was that our battleships should not be exposed to serious injury from the fire of any fort.

At that time the Spanish fleet was strong. Its whereabouts and destination were unknown. The primal necessity was to meet and crush its ships and to secure for us the domination of the sea. The Oregon had not arrived, the Maine was destroyed, and no naval authority would justify the unnecessary risk of the destruction of any of our battleships except in battle with the enemy's ships.

The movement to Porto Rico was timed to intercept, if possible, the fleet of Cervera, which was then expected. Cervera, undoubtedly learning that our fleet was at San Juan, changed his destination to Santiago. Our movements to Porto Rico thus became a reconnaissance and fulfilled its purpose. There was no intention at this time of taking Porto Rico, as the army was not then ready to co-operate.

With regard to sending our ships into the harbor of Santiago: Admiral Sampson was acting under the explicit orders of the department not to expose his armored ships to the risk of sinking by mine, and the wisdom of his course, I believe, is universally acknowledged by naval authorities. He waited as he should have done, the co-operation of the army. How effectually under this co-operation the result was accomplished is now a matter of history.

There are few more graphic scenes than must have been presented at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of July 14 when Shafter, with his troops ready to assault Santiago, awaited the reply of the Spanish commander to the demand for surrender. Sampson's fleet was at the mouth of the harbor, drawn in line and ready to bombard, as it had been for days previous, and the signal officer stood on the heights ready to wigwag the signal for firing. Happily instead of this signal came the good word that the Spanish had surrendered to this combined readiness for attack.

Please bear in mind the variety and weight of the responsibilities which were upon Admiral Sampson for the month previous to the great battle which destroyed Cervera's fleet. He was commanding officer of the whole squadron; charged with the detail of all the movements of ships; charged with clerical correspondence with the department and other officers; and especially charged with preventing the escape of Cervera.

Remember that this man, whom you sweepingly accuse, was devoting days and nights to these duties. If you will read the orders issued by him, beginning with June 1, you will find that the most thorough precautions had been taken to prevent the escape of Cervera; that our fleet was kept constantly in line; that the most rigid care with searchlights and other appliances was taken every night; that the commanding officer of every vessel knew his post and his duty in case of an attempt to escape; so that, when that attempt came, the movement to prevent it by the attack of our vessels upon the outgoing Spaniards went on like clockwork.

I can well understand why the friends of other officers should be so enthusiastic and earnest—as I in giving them the credit they so richly deserve for their glorious work. I can not conceive of anybody so mean as to detract by a single hair from their merit, but I can not understand why such a bitter feeling is manifested in many quarters toward Admiral Sampson, when all these officers, subordinate to him, in their reports, clearly and cordially recognize the fact that, although at the beginning he was, by orders from Washington, going to confer with General Shafter, yet the battle was fought under his orders, and the victory was the consummation of his thorough preparation.

For myself I do not know predilection for any one of these gallant men. I would crown every one of them with laurels. I want them all to have their just deserts. Every one of them deserves unstinted praise; not one of them deserves anything less than full measure for that day's work. And, therefore, I can think of nothing more cruel than the depreciation of the merit of the faithful, devoted and patriotic commander-in-chief, especially frail, worn with sleepless vigilance, weighed with measureless responsibilities and details, letting no duty go undone; for weeks with restless precaution blockading the Spanish squadron; at last by the unerring fulfillment of his plans crushing it under the feet which executed his command; yet now compelled in dignified silence to be assailed as vindictively as if he were an enemy of his country.

I am sure that no one more deprecates such an attack than the officers of the fleet—commodore, captains and all. Among them all is peace; whatever disquiet there may be elsewhere, the navy is serene.

JOHN D. LONG.

Why It Was Strong.

Santiago, Aug. 9.—In connection with my telegram of the 3d instant and the letter of the general officers to me of same date, I have the honor to say that since then I have talked with the division commanders and they join me in saying that the first report was made so strong because of the weakened and exhausted condition of the command, more than 75 per cent of which have been ill with a very weakening malarial fever lasting from four to six days and which leaves every man too much broken down to be of any service and in no condition to withstand an epidemic of yellow fever. For strong and healthy regiments coming here now and a little later with plenty of tentage to cover them and not subject to any hardships and with plenty of nourishing food the danger, in my opinion and that of the division commanders, would be reduced to a minimum.

SHAFTER.

Loading the Sick Boys.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 9.—General Shafter and the Spanish general, Toral, held a consultation at the palace with regard to the embarkation of the Spanish prisoners of war. As a result of the conference 1,000 of the Spanish sick and wounded will be taken on board the Alicante and sent to Spain as soon as the vessel is properly loaded. There is to be no bunching or waiting of transports. Each will sail as soon as it can be loaded after arrival here.

Bound For Honolulu.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—There are about 750 of the First New York volunteers at the Presidio. One hundred and fifty will sail for Honolulu on the steamer Mariposa next Wednesday. About 400 will go on the transport Alliance, which has been chartered by the Johnson-Locke company, and will reach here in a few days. The remaining 250 men will sail on one of the regular passenger steamers to the islands.

No Statement Obtainable.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The published report of the intention of Secretary Day to resign the office of secretary of state upon the termination of the present war is based upon statements that were made at the time he assumed office to the effect that he would consent to hold it but a short time. No official utterance as to the secretary's purpose is now obtainable and Secretary Day himself declines to make any statement on the subject.

Soldiers Coming Home.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 9.—The transports Miami, Mattewan and Vigilancia, loaded with United States troops, sailed for the United States Monday morning. The transport Grand Duchess has also left with 742 men and officers of the Thirteenth infantry, and six companies of the Seventy-first New York aggregating 458 men and officers.

Visited the Cristobal Colon.

Playa del Este, Province of Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 9.—The Merritt & Chapman wrecking steamer Potomac has arrived at the scene of the battle of July 3 and has visited the Cristobal Colon. The wreckers report her to be in a very bad situation, and they fear it is impossible to save her. The Maria Teresa has not yet been floated.

Conference With General Miles.

Ponce, Island of Porto Rico, Aug. 9.—General Brooke is here in conference with Major General Miles. His force is still at Guayma. A force of about 400 regular Spanish troops is stationed about eight miles away. The United States cruiser Montgomery and the hospital ship Relief have arrived at the Port of Ponce.

Soldiers Killed by Lightning.

Miami, Fla., Aug. 9.—A severe electrical storm passed over camp, resulting in the death of Private Charles Egill, company K, First Louisiana, and Corporal E. K. Humphreys, company E, First Texas. Private J. Cruz of company A, First Louisiana, was severely shocked, but will recover.

Visiting the Boys.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 9.—Governor Shaw of Iowa, accompanied by Mrs. Shaw, together with Adjutant General H. M. Byers and Colonel E. C. Pratt of the governor's staff, arrived on a visit to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Iowa regiments in camp here.

Fresh Instructions From France.

Paris, Aug. 9.—The Temps says: "Fresh and energetic instructions have been sent to M. Cambon (the French ambassador at Washington) to secure the release of the French steamer Olinda Rodriguez. The minister for foreign affairs, for a week past, has pointed out to the United States that her detention is arbitrary and illegal and has laid stress on the fact that she has mail diplomatic bags on board." The French steamer Olinda Rodriguez was captured by the New Orleans on July 17 off San Juan de Porto Rico, and was taken as a prize into Charleston, S. C.

Glad to Get Away.

Springfield, Ills., Aug. 9.—The men of the Eighth Illinois infantry, colored, were paid and later left over the Baltimore and Ohio Southern, going via Cincinnati and Washington, to New York. They expect to arrive in New York Tuesday night and will take the steamer Yale direct to Santiago. The men were in fine spirits, all seemingly glad to get the chance to go to Santiago. The Eighth is famous as the one regiment of the United States army that is composed entirely of colored men, including all the officers.

Not Sufficient Water.

New York, Aug. 9.—A dozen ambulances from the Red Cross society have arrived at Montauk Point, and Colonel Forward is going on with his preparations to provide for the care of the sick soldiers, who are to arrive from Santiago. There may be trouble in obtaining an ample supply of water. The work of driving the wells is progressing slowly. At present it looks as if the waterworks will be the main drawback to the camp.

Placed in Washington Barracks.

Washington, Aug. 9.—One hundred and twenty-eight sick soldiers arrived here from Norfolk, Va. They were taken to the Washington barracks where they were accommodated in the hospital building near the entrance to the grounds. The sick soldiers were of the Rough Riders, Tenth cavalry, and some infantrymen.

Yellow Fever Victims.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 7, via Washington, Aug. 9.—The following members of the Eighth Ohio died of yellow fever today: Corporal George L. Hopper, company H; Ira N. Royer, company K; Corporal Dudley Wilson, company G; Private Frank Dibley, company F.

Captain Weaver Dead.

Fernandina, Fla., Aug. 9.—Captain Weaver of company A, Third Ohio, died of typhoid fever. His remains have been sent to his home.

Undue Excitement.

Washington, Aug. 9.—General Shafter wires that the publication of the round robin has caused more excitement than the facts justify.

Of the $61,718,000 in gold mined in this country the past year Colorado produced $23,000,000.

THREE KILLED.

Terrible Railroad Accident Caused by a Misplaced Switch.

Canton, Mass., Aug. 9.—Three men were killed and a number of mail clerks were severely injured at Canton Junction, on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, by an express mail special from New York to Boston, jumping the tracks.

The accident was caused by a misplaced switch. The special was running at a high speed on a down grade. At the bottom of the slope the switch at a siding failed to work and in an instant the cars were off the track.

The engine and forward car were turned over on their sides and the other three cars were thrown from their trucks. The locomotive was completely demolished and the forward car was telescoped.

Ex-Mayor Sutor Dead.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—Ex-Mayor Sutor is dead. He was elected mayor of this city four years ago and served one term. He was born at Aix-La-Chapelle, Prussia, April 29, 1830. He received a liberal education and after business reverses in his own country, came to the United States with his mother and ten other children in 1850. Sutor amassed a fortune of about $4,000,000 in mining and real estate operations.

About That Turkish Answer.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Relative to the statement from Constantinople that the Turkish government has declined to recognize the American demands for indemnity for outrages committed upon American mission establishments in Turkey during the Armenian troubles, it is learned that this answer was returned some time ago, and in fact has been consistently rendered by Turkey whenever approached on this subject.

No Statue For Gladstone.

Dublin, Aug. 9.—The municipal council of Dublin has refused to comply with a request of the Gladstone memorial society for its co-operation in erecting in Dublin a statue commemorative of the life and services of Mr. Gladstone, similar to those which the society will erect in London and Edinburgh, because he "laid a heavy hand upon the Nationalists."

Would Borrow a Plank.

Salt Lake, Aug. 9.—A movement having been recently inaugurated to incorporate the Democratic financial plank in the platform of the state Republican party of Utah, Senator M. A. Hanna, chairman of the national Republican committee, has addressed a letter to United States Marshal Glen Miller of this city, protesting against such action.

To Harness Snoqualmie Falls.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The Snoqualmie Falls Power company has just closed contracts whereby it will harness the falls and furnish electric light and power for Tacoma and Seattle, 22 miles away. The water has a fall of 270 feet, and 100,000 horsepower can be developed.

Prevented From Suicide.

She became despondent over domestic troubles and tried to end her life by taking morphine and throwing herself before an Illinois Central freight train, but was saved.

Refused to Work the Roads.

Vanceburg, Ky., Aug. 9.—The Lewis county jail is overcrowded with prisoners, and about 15 have to be taken to the hotel for their meals. This large number is caused by 14 citizens refusing to work on the free turnpikes. They were arrested and jailed until they shall be willing to work.

Jumped From a Bridge.

Shelbyville, Ky., Aug. 9.—Miss Eva Adler, 48, committed suicide by jumping from the bridge spanning Clear Creek at the foot of Fifth street. She had been despondent for several years. Her body was taken to Louisville for burial. She has many relatives in Cincinnati.

Twenty Persons Drowned.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—During the departure of Dr. Campos Salles, president of Brazil, by the transatlantic liner Thames for America [probably Buenos Ayres] two steamers that were carrying friends to bid him farewell came into collision, swamping two small boats. It is feared that no fewer than 20 persons were drowned.

Foreclosure Suit Begun.

Cleveland, Aug. 9.—A foreclosure suit was commenced against the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway by the Mercantile Trust company of New York. A short time ago foreclosure proceedings were brought against the railroad under a consolidated mortgage. The new case is brought under the first mortgage on the Lake Erie division of the road.

SPAIN'S NOTE ARRIVES

Came to Washington Monday Afternoon.

NOT MADE PUBLIC AT ONCE.

It Is Believed It Is Not an Unqualified Acceptance.

HOPE TO IMPOSE ON M'KINLEY.

Expect Him to Show Unexampled Mercy to Those Whose Inhumanity Is Without a Parallel in the History of the World.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The Spanish reply to the peace terms was received by M. Cambon, the French ambassador, late Monday afternoon. There is reason to believe it is not an unqualified acceptance of the American terms, but is framed on the theory of accepting the essentials and trusting to a hoped-for conciliatory spirit on the part of this government to moderate to some extent features which the Spanish government seems to regard as unessentials.

As France Would Have It.

Paris, Aug. 9.—The Temps says it is to be hoped the noble resignation of Spain will touch the heart of President McKinley, and that he will consider it honorable to show that if the United States is strong, it is great and magnanimous enough to spare the vanquished enemy, not to abuse its victory, and to desire by the generosity of its acts to make the treaty with the people they have learned to respect on the battlefield a veritable pact of friendship.

The Secret Let Out.

Havana, Aug. 9.—General Blanco has issued a manifesto saying that Spain has sued for peace because the powers compelled her to do so, she not feeling able, owing to her crippled condition as a result of the present war, to fight the whole world just now.

TWO ACCIDENTS.

Electric Cars Come Together on Two Suburban Cleveland Lines.

Cleveland, Aug. 9.—A collision on the Lorain and Cleveland Electric railroad occurred two miles east of the power house at Avon Point, 15 miles west of here.

People were thrown forward in both cars, which were stove in badly and about 14 of the passengers were more or less injured, though none of them fatally. The crash came during a blinding rainstorm.

A head-on collision also occurred at Willoughby, 20 miles east, between a special car on the Painesville and Eastern suburban line and a regular motor. Misunderstanding of orders of orders caused the accident. Eleven persons were injured, many seriously but none fatally.

Lamont's Car Wrecked.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 9.—News has been received here that the private car of Daniel Lamont, vice president of the Northern Pacific railroad, has been badly wrecked on the Seattle and International railroad between Getahell and Arlington, about 50 miles from this city. Fortunately no one was hurt. While the passenger train to which the car was attached was standing still on a trestle 60 feet high it was run into from the rear by a freight train. The engineer of the freight train had reversed steam and the force of the collision was not sufficient to throw the passenger train off the track. Mr. Lamont and the occupants of the car took refuge in the forward cars.

Foreigners In Danger.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Advices received from Cocos, Guatemala, show that the revolutionary movement there has assumed a phase which, while not jeopardizing the existing government, promises to involve foreign residents in great difficulty. The insurgents under Morales are believed to have received considerable support from the Mexicans on the frontier, who are said to be chargeable at least with failing to observe neutrality.

Rome, Aug. 9.—The pope has issued an encyclical protesting against the suppression of Catholic journals during the recent insurrection, which it declares "illegal, contrary to christianity, specially directed against the papacy, and calculated to embitter religious conflict, so prejudicial to Italy and to remove a conservative force against socialism and anarchy."

ARTIFICIAL FOOD.

Discovery That Greatly Reduces the Cost of Living.

[London Cable New York Sun.]

The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent has had an interview with Dr. Lillienfeld, the discoverer of artificial albumen. He is an Austrian Pole, and is twenty-nine years old. He graduated at the Berlin University and has been experimenting on the synthesis of albumen for years. He has now discovered a very simple process of producing albumen, which occupies only a few minutes. The ingredients are chiefly waste products, so albumen will be extremely cheap.

While a kilogram of natural pepton can be obtained from meat at a cost of $5 a like quantity of the artificial product can be obtained for less than $1. Thus an adult will be able to obtain the necessary daily amount of albumen for eight cents. The pepton can be easily blended with vegetables and other foods that are hard to digest. It has the form of a brown powder. Its taste resembles that of the albumen of a raw egg. Dr. Lillienfeld intends to work his patent on a large scale, beginning in Germany.

Electric Park.

In spite of the incessant rain of yesterday, there was quite a crowd greeted the performers last night. Holmes and Waldron made a good impression with their musical act. Anzola and Heclow pleased all in their eccentric comedy act. Miss Heclow is quite a clever dancer. Owing to the non-completion of the paraphernalia for the farce "Barnum's Baby Elephant," this was necessarily omitted, but everything will be in readiness for to-night, and it will be given in its entirety. Ten cents pays admission and round trip car fare.

A HEARTLESS CREATURE.

A Cincinnati Woman Left Her Children Starving and Came to Maysville on an Excursion.

[Enquirer].
 Three small children, the eldest of whom is ten years of age, were left alone Sunday at their squalid home at 114 Sycamore street, by a heartless mother, who enjoyed a river excursion to Maysville, Ky.

The children cried so that the neighbors were bothered, and the matter was reported to the Second District Police Station. An investigation revealed the sad fact that the tots were on the verge of starvation, there not being a crust of bread in the rooms.

The woman's name could not be learned.

The Times Star says the woman's name is Wise. She was arrested on her return home and was committed to the workhouse for thirty days and the little ones sent to the hospital from where they will be committed to the Refuge.

CONTRACTS, deeds, mortgages, wills and other legal instruments carefully executed.
 J. M. COLLINS,
 35 West Third street.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL KAUTZ, who recently fell from a large tobacco barn on his farm died Friday, near Higginsport, of the injuries received. He was a prominent officer in the Civil War, and an intimate friend of General Grant. He was a brother of Commodore Kautz.

Hon. A. P. Gooding introduced the following resolutions which were adopted:

We the Democrats of Mason County, in convention assembled for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent this county in the convention to be held at Cynthiana, Ky., on the 10th day of August, 1898, to nominate a candidate for Congress, do hereby endorse and reaffirm our allegiance to the principles set out in the platform adopted by the Democrats at the Chicago convention in 1896.

We also endorse a vigorous prosecution of the war with Spain.

That we cordially and heartily endorse the candidacy of our fellow-citizen, James N. Kehoe, for Congress of the Ninth district. He is a lawyer of acknowledged ability and a citizen of unblemished integrity, fully equipped for the important and responsible position to which he aspires.

The delegates selected by this convention to represent the Democracy of this county in the convention which convenes at Cynthiana are instructed to cast the vote of the county for Mr. Kehoe and to use all honorable efforts to secure his nomination.

Said delegates are instructed to cast the vote of this county as a unit on all questions that may come before said convention, the vote to be determined by the majority of the delegates in attendance.

While awaiting the report of the delegates, the convention was addressed by Judge Phister, Judge Coons and Mr. T. D. Slattery in brief speeches. Their references to Bryan, the Chicago platform and to Mr. Kehoe were enthusiastically applauded.

The convention adjourned sine die.

OVER FOUR INCHES.

This Section Visited by the Biggest Rain Storm in Many Years.

One of the biggest rains that has visited this section in years began Monday about noon.

At 12:40 p. m. the rain began falling, and during the first hour the precipitation amounted to over an inch and a half. Then there was a slight let-up in the down-pour, but it was soon coming down as lively as ever. At 6 p. m. 3.33 inches had fallen.

There was but little let-up during the night, and at 6 o'clock this morning the local observer reported the total precipitation amounted to 4.05 inches, and still raining.

This is the heaviest rainfall in years at this point. All streams were out of their banks. Limestone creek was on a tear. A great deal of damage was done to crops in the creek bottoms and considerable damage was also done by the washing of the land.

The heavy rain Monday afternoon caused the big sewer that passes through the jail yard to cave in at a point just west of the jail building.

GENERAL POLAND DEAD

Typhoid Fever Laid the Old Warrior Low.

BRILLIANT CAREER CLOSED.

He Was a Native Indian, an Indian Fighter of More Than Ordinary Ability, and a Hero of the War of Secession.

Princeton, Ind., Aug. 9.—A Washington dispatch says that Brigadier General John S. Poland died of typhoid fever at Asheville, N. C., where he was taken several days ago from Chickamauga, having been stricken with the disease at the latter place.

At the outbreak of the present war he was in command of the Seventeenth United States Infantry at Columbus barracks, O., and promptly offered his services, and at the time of his death was brigadier general commanding the Second division, First army corps, at Chickamauga Park, Ga.

The body was shipped to Westbury, R. I., where the funeral will take place Wednesday.

John Scroggs Poland was born in Princeton, Ind., Oct. 14, 1836, was appointed to West Point academy in July, 1856, and graduated in 1861. On May 6, 1861, he received his commission as second lieutenant of the Second infantry. On June 6, 1861, he was made a first lieutenant, and his military career during the civil war was one of the most brilliant.

His first active service was in the Manassas campaign of July, 1861, being in the battle of Bull Run. The other battles in which he participated were the siege of Yorktown, Gaines Mills, Malvern Hill, Manassas, Antietam, Shepherdstown, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg, and he was engaged in defense of the capital against General Early's raids. For gallant and meritorious services at the battles of Antietam, Shepherdstown and Fredericksburg he was made brevet major, and was made brevet lieutenant colonel at the battle of Chancellorsville.

He was made a captain June 27, 1862. On Dec. 13, 1862, he was brevetted a major, and on May 3, 1863, was brevetted a lieutenant colonel. On April 17, 1869, he was reassigned, but went into the Sixth United States Infantry on July 14 of that year. On Dec. 15, 1880, he was made a major in the Eighteenth regulars, and on March 1, 1886, lieutenant colonel of the Twenty-first. On Aug. 1, 1891, he was made colonel of the Seventeenth, whose grand work at Santiago shows with what care and precision he had trained them.

General Poland would have been retired as a colonel of the regular army Oct. 14, 1900, and would then have been 64—the age limit. He married a daughter of the Rev. W. R. Babcock, a famous Massachusetts minister, and has two children, a son, Lieutenant Will Poland of the One Hundred and Fifty-eighth Indiana volunteers, and a daughter, Mrs. E. St. John Greble, wife of Captain Greble of the Second United States Artillery.

In 1865 General Poland was assigned to the United States military academy, where he served for four years as assistant professor of geography, history, ethics and drawing. In the 10 years following he was doing frontier duty mostly. In 1881-8 he was chief of the department of law at the United States infantry and cavalry school at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and in 1881-3 he had charge of the department of military drawing.

He has published a digest of the military laws of the United States from 1861-1868, also "The Convention of Geneva of 1864-1868," and "The St. Petersburg International Commission."

General Poland was a fine writer, a rapid sketcher and a deep thinker. He had two lives—one military and the other home. He was handsome and distinguished. He wore long military mustaches of iron gray; he was as straight as an arrow and had a keen eye in his head. On horseback he was a centaur.

He was as skilled in the art of Indian warfare as he was in the laws that covered the military arm of the government. He had served his country brilliantly in 1861-65, and as brilliantly in the frontier work that made the great west a possibility.

THE ROLL CALL.

The roll was called at morning. When the day of battle came, And every valiant soldier boy Had answered to his name. But who shall answer roll-call? When the battle day has fled? Ah, some must answer silently, From the camp ground of the dead. And some must answer brokenly, From the stretchers by the way, But all will answer somehow, At the closing of the day—The voices of the living, And the valor of the dead, Will answer at the roll call, When the battle day has fled.

The workman often eats his lunch on the same bench where he does his work. The office man turns his desk into a dining-table. Neither gets the out of doors exercise he needs, neither takes the proper time for eating. It is small wonder that the digestion of both get out of order. In such cases Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come to their assistance by aiding nature in taking care of the food.

The cause of nine-tenths of the sickness of the world is constipation. From this one cause come indigestion, disorders of the stomach, liver and kidney, biliousness, headaches, dizziness, heartburn, impurities of the blood and the serious complications that follow. To begin with, constipation is a little thing, and a little thing will cure it. The "Pleasant Pellets" are a tiny, sugar-coated granules. They will perfectly cure the worst case of constipation and indigestion. If the druggist tries to sell you some other pill that pays him greater profit, just think of what will best pay you.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the basement of the church.

Why Sigsbee Turned Scuttler.

On another occasion Captain Sigsbee deliberately sank his ship to save her from a still worse fate. He was in command of the coast survey steamer Blake and was anchored in a West Indian port when a hurricane came up, and in the heavy sea the ship's anchors began to drag. She was drifting to utter and inevitable destruction on a reef. Where she lay there was a soft, sandy bottom. The captain ordered her scuttled, and down she went. Later she was pumped out and raised—an expensive operation, but far less costly than building a new ship.—Munsey's Magazine.

How Gold Was Found on the Klondike. "The River Trip to the Klondike" is described in The Century by John Sidney Webb. The author says:

The famous Bonanza creek and the more famous El Dorado creek are very like ordinary, everyday creeks in appearance—a little less civilized perhaps than creeks to be met with in the east. There are men living in Alaska today who have hunted moose over these creeks dozens of times; but, as the old miners say, there were no surface indications to lead any one to suppose that gold might be found in them, so hundreds of miners passed by in their boats, going to Forty Mile and Circle City. The finding of such gold is always an accident, and the old hands are usually the last to realize the truth. "Stick George" Cormack and his squaw's relatives camped on the creek for dinner one day and somehow got to digging and washed out some gold. He went to Forty Mile and made claim for discovery, and soon the news spread like wild-fire.
